

we listen to K-Love radio as a family. It is both a local and national radio station that focuses on providing positive programming that a family can enjoy. We have heard that there's an FCC proposal to expand LPFM service to give it priority over FM translator service. I'm worried this could affect K-Love radio in my area, which I do not think would be in the public's best interest.